RE: Invitation-The National Israeli-American Conference

Dear Mr. Barak,

It is our privilege to invite you as a distinguished speaker to the 2015 National Israel-American Conference.

Initiated by the Israeli-American Council (IAC), The National Israeli-American Conference will take place October 17-19, 2015, at the Washington Hilton hotel in Washington, D.C. Now in its second year, The National Israeli-American Conference brings together influential thought leaders, industry experts, senior political and diplomatic figures, community leaders, prominent journalists and more.

The wave of delegitimization against the State of Israel is broadening, now is the time to empower our community for our future and in support of Israel. Over an inspiring three day journey, we will together explore unlocking the potential of the Israeli-American community, effectively advocating for Israel at this critical time, and how to bring the Israeli secret sauce into American and Jewish life.

The 2014 IAC Inaugural Israeli-American National Conference conjoined nearly 1000 community leaders from 28 U.S. states, and over 50 non-profit organizations. Honored guests included Israeli Minister Gilad Erdan, U.S. Senator Joseph Lieberman, Ambassador Ron Dermer, Governor Mitt Romney, Congressman Ted Deutch, Dr. Miriam and Sheldon Adelson, and Haim Saban.

The mission of the Israeli-American Council (IAC) is to build an engaged and united Israeli-American community that strengthens the American-Jewish community, our next generations and the State of Israel.

Please feel welcome to have your staff contact Estee Annerl Shiraz at estee@israeliamerican.org or (818) 451-1201, or to contact either of us directly.

We look forward to your positive reply.

Sincerely,

Shawn Evenhaim
IAC Chairman of the Board

Adam Milstein
IAC National Board Member
